

DIRECTOR OF SUMMER RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS

ABOUT US

The AnBryce Foundation is a philanthropic organization that promotes social change by building a community of global citizens through education, career, cultural, and leadership opportunities to under-resourced young people.

ABOUT THE POSITION

We seek a dynamic & agile program director looking to move up the ladder & lead all business & operations management functions of an ACA-accredited camp with an educational enrichment focus. This is a full-time, year-round position with the option to be based in the Washington, DC Metro area or Madison, VA. Applicants must be at least 25 years of age, with previous knowledge & experience in the management & delivery of residential camp and/or outdoor education programs. Benefits include a competitive salary, health care, dental & vision benefits, 401K retirement & employer match, etc. Women and people of color are especially encouraged to apply.

If you're interested, send your resume to Rachelle Barrs at campdogwood@anbryce.org