

Service. Community. Wild Places.

Stewards VISTA: Appalachian Conservation Corps

Join us as the Community Engagement Coordinator at Appalachian Conservation Corps!

This position will work to advance community engagement and diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives across the organization. The desired outcome is to promote stronger community connections between Conservation Legacy programs and the places in which they live and work as well as to better engage the next generation as stewards of our public lands, building stronger connections between young people and the natural world.

The Stewards Individual Placement Program places individual placements across the nation in projects that build capacity, improve access to natural resources, develop and support innovative solutions, develop opportunities for service and economic development, and empower leaders. Each Stewards project is unique, crafted by the local sponsoring organization and Stewards Individual Placement Program staff in order to address the specific needs of the community served. As AmeriCorps VISTAs, Stewards serve in projects that address the root causes of poverty by building local capacity and engaging local community members.

In addition to partnering with nonprofits and land management sites across the United States, Stewards and Conservation Legacy partner with federal agencies including: The Corporation for National and Community Service, The United States Department of the Interior, Department of Agriculture, The National Park Service, The Bureau of Indian Affairs, Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement, and more.
